Lobbying and Political Contributions

Public policy affects our ability to meet patient needs and provide shareholder value. Essential aspects of our business are being challenged by barriers to access, counterfeits, illegal importation and challenges to intellectual property protection. For this reason, we actively participate in public policy dialogues to explain our perspectives. We have extensive knowledge about health care and many ideas about improving its efficiency, as well as a global perspective on public health, disease prevention and health education.

We believe that public policy engagement is an important and appropriate role for companies in open societies, when conducted in a legal and transparent manner. In the U.S. there are important federal and state lobbying registration and disclosure laws with which Pfizer complies.

There are also federal and state laws which prohibit and/or restrict the use of corporate treasury funds for political purposes. Corporate treasury funds may not be used to contribute to candidates for federal office. The Pfizer Political Action Committee makes contributions to candidates for federal office, and fully discloses its contributions on a regular basis to the Federal Election Commission. Corporate treasury funds may be used, where legally permissible, to contribute to candidates for state and local office. We publicly disclose our corporate political contributions and employee Political Action Committee contributions on our Web site.

Finally, corporate treasury funds may not be used to make "independent expenditures" in connection with federal and state elections. Pfizer has adopted a strict policy against making independent expenditures.

Pfizer PAC & Corporate Political Contributions Report January 1, 2011 – June 30, 2011

Learn which candidates we support in your community.

Pfizer PAC – Our Voices, Our Impact.

A Message from Sally Susman, Chair, Pfizer PAC

I am pleased to share our semi-annual 2012 election cycle political contributions report, which includes a list of candidates and political committees that the Pfizer PAC supported from January 1, 2011 through June 30, 2011.

The Pfizer PAC is bipartisan; we contribute to candidates of both political parties. To date this cycle, we have supported 291 candidates at all levels of government. I hope you will take time to review the report to see which candidates the PAC supported in your state and community.

This election cycle is critical to our industry and reputation – our elected representatives are making difficult choices, including focusing on cost reductions which may limit access to medicines as well as protecting our ability to continue researching and developing innovative medicines.

Pfizer's goal is to generate sustained, positive "public will" among the general public, policy makers, and all of our stakeholders to help build constructive discourse in the political and regulatory environment in support of short- and long-term business objectives.

As Pfizer's PAC Chair and through my interactions with elected officials, I see first-hand how decisions are made that impact our ability to discover and bring to market innovative medicines that help the patients we serve. The Pfizer PAC supports candidates who are committed to maintaining and improving incentives for innovation and protecting and expanding access for the patients we serve.

Thank you for your support,

PFIZER PAC

Our Voices Our Impact

What is a PAC?

PAC stands for Political Action Committee. A political action committee is a government-regulated organization that anyone can form to raise money for political campaign donations. PACs are formed by individuals, non-profits, and even many major corporations.

How Does Pfizer PAC Work?

The Pfizer political action committee, Pfizer PAC, is a nonpartisan organization that provides opportunities for employees to participate in the American political process. The Pfizer PAC is an employee-run organization with a Steering Committee made up of Pfizer employees from different divisions of the company. All corporate PACs are funded by voluntary employee contributions. Pfizer PAC is no different; it relies on the participation of Pfizer colleagues.

Who Receives Pfizer PAC Contributions?

Pfizer PAC is nonpartisan. It supports Democrats and Republicans alike. From January 2011 through June 2011, Pfizer PAC supported 291 candidates. True to its nonpartisan values, Pfizer PAC is committed to support candidates from both political parties who share Pfizer's vision and values for healthcare. When choosing to make a contribution to a candidate, the Pfizer PAC considers candidates' views on issues that impact Pfizer and its employees as well as the presence of Pfizer facilities or employees in the candidate's district or state. A complete list of Pfizer PAC and state corporate political contributions for January 2011 – June 2011 is included in this report.

PFIZER PAC & POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS GOVERNANCE POLICY

Pfizer complies fully with all federal, state, and local laws and reporting requirements governing PAC and corporate political contributions.

Pfizer has a Corporate Policy Procedure (#802a) that requires all PAC and corporate political contributions to be compiled and published semi-annually in a report that is made available to employees, shareholders, and the public, and posted on the Company's website at www.pfizer.com in "Lobbying and Political Contributions" under the "About Pfizer" tab within the "Corporate Governance" section.

Pfizer also requests that trade associations receiving total payments of $100,000 or more from Pfizer in a given year report the portion of Pfizer dues or payments used for expenditures or contributions that, if made directly by Pfizer, would not be deductible under section 162(e)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. We are disclosing such information received from our trade associations in this report.

Pfizer has a PAC Steering Committee comprised of eight colleagues who review and approve all PAC and corporate political contributions on a monthly basis. To ensure adequate representation, Steering Committee members represent different divisions within the Pfizer organization. The PAC Steering Committee evaluates candidates on a basis of their views on issues that impact Pfizer and its colleagues. It also takes note of whether Pfizer facilities or colleagues reside in a candidate's district or state. In addition, all PAC and corporate contribution requests are shared with the Pfizer Political Contributions Policy Committee for review. The Political Contributions Policy Committee is responsible for governing the Pfizer PAC.

Pfizer does not traditionally make contributions to 527 Issue Organizations such as MoveOn.Org or Swift Boat Veterans. If we were asked to make such a contribution, it would have to be reviewed and approved by the Political Contributions Policy Committee and subsequently disclosed in our semi-annual report.

Finally, in light of the Supreme Court decision in the Citizens United case, Pfizer has determined that it will not make any direct independent expenditures, a decision which has been discussed at the executive level as well as with the Corporate Governance Committee of our Board.
